The compulsory insurance covers your stand and the items, to the exclusion of among others plasma screens, exhibited against theft, damage and destruction up to a value of € 15,000 (see art. 18, 19 and 20 of general regulations for exhibition organised by Reed Expositions France and the itemized terms and conditions of the exhibitor's insurance).

The additional insurance allows you to insure, on the one hand, your stand and the items exhibited if their value exceed € 15,000 (do not include plasma screens), and on the other hand, the plasma screens exhibited onto your stand.

The following table enables you to calculate the complementary value to insure and the corresponding premium.

Items	Value in €	Premium to be paid in €
Total value of your stand and items exhibited*	_____ € (A)
Coverage by compulsory insurance	15.000 € (B)
Global value to insure for complementary consideration (excl. Plasma screens)	_____ € (A-B)
As per details:
- Ordinary material value to insure for complementary consideration	_____ € (C)	(C) X 0,32 % = _____ €
- Audiovisual material value to insure for complementary consideration	_____ € (D)	(D) X 1,25 % = _____ €
Total value of plasma screens exhibited onto your stand to insure	_____ € (E)	(E) X 3 % = _____ € (J)
	Obligatory minimal premium to pour (only for the screens plasmas)	300 €(K)
Total premium for plasma screens	If J < K	_____ € (K)
	If J ≥ K	_____ € (J)
TOTAL PREMIUM	F + G +(J ou K)	_____ €

*The plasma screens are excluded from any compulsory guarantees and are not included into the calculation of (A).

In order to validate this request exhibitors must send imperatively with this form:

- description and value of the items to be covered by the additional insurance.

I hereby declare that the particulars shown above are true and complete.
